KENTUCKY EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

The Kentucky Educational Association will hold its annual meeting in this city, commencing June 24th, and it is none too soon to begin preparations to welcome and entertain the many who will be here on that occasion. Nearly one thousand teachers and others interested in the cause of education attended the meeting at Lexington in 1902, so it will be seen that the coming of this association to Maysville means a big thing for the city. The Board of Trade representing the business interests of the city united in the invitation to the association to meet here, and it behooves our people to join heartily in every effort to make the stay of our visitors in June all that they may anticipate. We know the good people of Maysville will do this—do all that is expected of them, and even more than that. County Superintendent Wells and the city and county teachers' associations we believe can count on the hearty co-operation of all in their plans and preparations for the reception and entertainment of the Kentucky Educational Association.

At the last meeting of the city teachers they agreed on a contribution to aid in the entertainment of the visitors in June and the county teachers, at their last meeting, also took similar action. But the teachers must not be expected to bear all the burden. If we are rightly informed the visitors pay their hotel bills at these meetings, and the object in raising a fund is to provide some pleasant entertainment for them during their stay.

See the Black Patti Troubadours to-night.

Mirth, melody and music are the keynote of the performance to be given by the famous Black Patti Troubadours at the Washington to-night. These singers and ebony-colored funmakers of Dixie Land have been recognized as a high-class standard attraction, and one that has scored a popular success with theatergoers in all sections of the country. Among the forty in its ranks are to be found the most talented Afro-American singers, dancers and comedians in the world. Sissieretta Jones, the Black Patti, the vocal star of the organization—the most gifted singer of her race. Seats on sale at Nelson's, and if you enjoy good singing and dancing, see this really good show. The entire balcony reserved for colored people.

River News.

I am now rounding up my twenty-third year in Maysville. During that entire time I have worked hard and incessantly to build a trade for first-class goods and to establish and hold a reputation for honorable and fair dealing. My success in business has proved to me that I have not worked in vain. My business has steadily increased from the beginning. I intend to continue in the same old way. For your very liberal support you have my most sincere thanks, and I most respectfully ask for a continuance of same. I want country people when in our city to visit my store and make it their headquarters. You are always welcome.

Remember, I run two delivery wagons, and it is always a pleasure to deliver goods.
